

Westpoint recognises our Community Heroes

Westpoint has launched a new recognition programme to reward outstanding acts of kindness and/or community service undertaken by individuals or groups within our local area.

Proudly supported by

Advocate

Congratulations to the August winner of the $1000
monthly grant

St John Ambulance Blacktown Cadet Division

St John Ambulance Australia (NSW) Blacktown Cadet Division are a group of volunteers. The Cadets are aged from 11 to 18 and there is a Junior section for children aged between 8 and 11.

Members are trained in First Aid procedures at their weekly meetings. Cadets perform voluntary First Aid duties for the public at events such as sporting meets, festivals and local community gatherings.

Cadets develop good citizenship and life skills in tasks such as camping, canoeing, environmental studies, crafts, cooking, fire-fighting, communications and casualty simulation.

For more information about the St John Ambulance - Blacktown Cadet Division, email blacktown_cadets@one.stjohnnsw.com.au

Cadets at a Leadership Training Course

The Westpoint Community Heroes Programme provides a $1000 grant to one not for profit group or individual each month. Nominations close on the 20th of each month, and can be made by visiting www.westpointblacktown.com.au

Westpoint

NEW GENERATION